WEEK 8: PREPARING TO TAKE THE LEAP

Thinking about taking the leap?

Before you commit, there are a few things you should prayerfully consider.

First and foremost—is your potential partner genuinely hungry for God? It's not just about whether they go to church or mention faith in conversation. Ask yourself: Are they truly born again? Is there evidence of a personal relationship with Jesus?

Here's something to keep in mind: A lot of people will say they're saved—especially in the South—but that doesn't always mean they've surrendered their life to Christ. Salvation is more than a statement; it's a lifestyle. So don't be afraid to dig deeper and ask the hard questions. Your future depends on it.

Take the time to find out the following:

- Does he/she read the Word? How often?
- Do they pray? When and how?
- How do they talk, Do they curse, speak negativity?
- How often do they go to church?
- Do you have to motivate him/her to seek after God?

The driving force behind these questions is to find out where the other person is spiritually. The key trait to look for is whether or not they have a personal and intimate relationship with God.
